

Dr. Hall Planned to ElopeTrolley Car Runs Wild

CRASH! One-man surface car ran wild when motorman lost control at 119th Street and Amsterdam Avenue and collided with auto truck and almost overturned. Six car passengers and three men on the truck were injured. (P. & A.)

BARES PLOT. That her sister, Eleanor Mills, planned to elope to Japan with Dr. Hall was testified by Mrs. Elsie Barnhardt, state witness in the murder trial at Somerville. Exclusive photo above shows Mrs. Barnhardt (right) and slain choir singer's daughter, Charlotte Mills.

POLICE DOG FIRE HERO. Family of thirteen were saved from death by Jack, alert police dog, who took up cry for help when ammonia tank at 619 9th Ave. exploded. Photo shows canine hero with William Cafaro, who was among those saved.

RELIGIOUS DIFFERENCES led to separation of Mrs. Cecile Francis from husband, Charles Francis, it was testified in Supreme Court yesterday. Mrs. Francis was awarded the children, Charles, Jr., and Donald, with whom she's shown above for half of each week; hubby gets them other half. (Graphic.)

PRESENT NEW OPERA.

Production of Puccini's last opera, "Turandot," at the Metropolitan, makes tonight a red-letter night on the music calendar. Above (l. to r.) are leading figures responsible for production: Giulio Setti, Giulio Gatti-Casazza, Marie Jeritza, Tullio Serafin and Wilhelm von Wymetal.